Talking Points

- California is the largest single home state, at 46.36% of trips, while 55.73% of trips come from out of state; Los Angeles is the top market at 22.85%, and Arizona is the top out-of-state feeder at 7.10%.
- Visitors are most often found in City Council Districts, External Locations, and City; top spending goes to Accommodations, Dining and Nightlife, and Grocery and Dept Stores, bringing $38,887,060 to local businesses.
- Los Angeles contributes the largest share of spending at 20.11%, while San Francisco-Oak-San Jose has the highest average spend per trip at $480.22; Accommodations spending most often goes with Dining and Nightlife spending (28.60%).
- Overnight visitors account for 61.26% of visitor days; Resorts make up 19.84% and Hotels 8.77%, or 28.61% combined.
- Visitors are most often 45–64 years old (35.5%); 50.3% are from households of 3+ people, and 58.8% have household incomes of $75K+.
- Repeat visitors make up 43.64% of visitation.

Caladan 1.2 Model |© Datafy - All Rights Reserved
This data represents a statistical model based on a sample size of devices.

DATAFY